Information in this document is protected by HIPAA privacy laws and should be handled accordingly.
 This form is only good for travel to and from, and attendance at, this specific camp; it may not be used for any other camping trip. A new form must be completed for each Young Life Camp experience.

Note to Parent/Guardian/Guest: Young Life wants the camp experience to be a safe and healthy one. However, in the event of an accident or illness, it is important that we have the following information:

1. Medical history;
2. Medical insurance information; and
3. Proof of physical examination (within past 12 months), verified by Physician's signature, is recommended for all camps (physician's signature required for camps in CO or MN). Physician's release required for all infants from 6-12 weeks on camp date. Infants younger than 6 weeks on camp date may not attend any camp. Infants younger than 12 weeks may not attend Washington Family Ranch, Malibu Club, Beyond Malibu, Wilderness Ranch, or remote camps.

Please make a copy for your records. Camps may not fax or send copies to other camps.

AUTHORIZATION FOR TREATMENT

This health history is correct to the best of my knowledge, and the person herein named has permission to engage in all camp activities except as noted. I hereby give permission to the medical personnel selected by the camp director to order X-rays, routine tests, treatment; to maintain and/or release any medical records necessary for insurance purposes as outlined under the HIPAA regulations*; and to provide or arrange necessary related transportation for me or my child. In an emergency, I hereby give permission and authorize the physician selected by Young Life to secure or administer emergency medical treatment, including hospitalization and any other emergency medical procedures which may be needed for the person named herein. I authorize the physician or dentist to call in any necessary consultants in his/her discretion. It is understood that this consent is given in advance of any specific diagnosis or treatment being required, and is given to encourage those persons who have temporary custody of the minor, and said physician or dentist to exercise their best judgment as to the requirements of such diagnosis or medical, dental or surgical treatment.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Young Life is committed to protecting your personal health information. Personal health information may include such items as health consent forms, medical history information, etc.... This notice about protecting your health information is required by law. It tells you about your rights and how Young Life uses and discloses your health information.

Your Health Information Rights

You have certain rights regarding the health information Young Life has about you. You have the right to:

- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your health information; however, Young Life is not required to approve your request.
- Request that Young Life notify you about your health information in a way or at a location that will help you keep your health information confidential.
- Receive a list of disclosures Young Life has made of your health information.
- In writing at any time, withdraw your permission for Young Life to disclose your health information, except for the information that Young Life disclosed before you stopped your permission.
- Ask Young Life to change your health information if you believe it is incorrect or incomplete. Young Life may deny your request and, if so, will give you the reason(s) why the request was denied.
- Receive a paper or electronic copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices upon request.

If you would like to have a more detailed explanation of these rights or if you would like to exercise one of these rights, contact:

How Young Life May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

The law permits Young Life to use or disclose your health information for the following purposes:

Treatment - Young Life may use and disclose your health information to help you receive medical treatment and services.

Example: Young Life may use your medical history information to ensure that you receive proper medical care, should you become injured.

Payment - Young Life may use and disclose your health information to pay for your medical treatment and services

Example: A claim for healthcare services may be sent to Young Life by your doctor. The claim may contain information that identifies you, your diagnosis, and the treatment or supplies you received.

Health Care Operations - Young Life may use and disclose your health information to internal auditors.

Example: Your health information may be disclosed to the medical staff or quality improvement staff to review the effectiveness of the medical care you received.

Requirements by Law - Young Life may use and disclose your health information when the law requires it.

Example: Young Life may disclose information for the following purposes:

- To reply to proper requests for your health information from a court or other legal agency.
- To report information for public health, such as reporting victims of abuse, neglect or domestic violence, or reporting to the Food and Drug Administration, problems with products or reactions to medications.
- To report information for public safety, such as to prevent the spread of a serious threat to the health or safety of a particular person or the general public.
- To assist law enforcement officials, such as the police, in their law enforcement duties.
- To allow funeral directors, medical examiners or coroners to carry out their lawful duties, such as to complete a death certificate for the state.
- To comply with laws and regulations related to Workers' Compensation.
- To allow other government agencies to provide you with benefits and services.

Health Oversight Activities - Young Life may disclose your health information to government health agencies for health oversight reasons, such as program audits or licensure review.

Research - Young Life may use your health information for approved research purposes, such as for a study to cure a disease.

Special Government Functions – “Special government functions” such as protection of public officials or reporting to various branches of the armed services, may require the use or disclosure of your health information.

Obligations of Young Life

Young Life is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your protected health information.
- Provide you with this Notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your health information.
- Obtain your written authorization to use or disclose your health information for reasons other than those listed in this Notice and permitted under law.
- Abide by the terms of this Notice that are currently in effect.
- Notify you if Young Life is unable to agree to a requested restriction on how your information is used or disclosed.
- Allow reasonable requests you may make to notify you about your health information in a way or at a location that will help you keep your health information confidential.

Young Life reserves the right to change its information practices. The new provisions will be effective for all protected health information that The Young Life Benefits Plan maintains. Revised notices will be made available by contacting the administration office of the camp you are attending.

If you have a complaint about this Notice of Privacy Practices, how Young Life handles your health information, or if you otherwise believe that your privacy rights have been violated by Young Life, your complaint should be directed to:

The Young Life Benefits Department
Attention: Privacy Official
420 North Cascade Avenue
Colorado Springs, CO 80903
(719) 381-1800

If you are not satisfied with the manner in which Young Life handles a complaint, you may submit a formal complaint to the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services in Washington, DC.

There will be no retaliation by Young Life if you file a complaint.
